

Societal Influences due to Corona Measures

Excerpt from the 783rd contact from Sunday, the 7th of November 2021

Billy ... But tell me, what do you think of everything that arises from the rampantly spreading corona disease?

Menara I cannot tell you much more about this than that which Ptaah explained to us, because I myself have no experience or knowledge with regard to the corona infection, which is currently spreading on Earth as a rampantly spreading disease pandemic. His only instructions to us was to explain what is happening on Earth and with its population. He explained everything as follows:

Explanation by Ptaah, repeated by Menara: now it has happened that all over the world, national leaders, epidemiologists, virologists, health officials, doctors, the WHO and the vaccinated have created a two-tier society due to their own fearful and profit-hungry pretence, controlled by the pharmaceutical companies. This is due to the non-compliance of the unvaccinated who continue to refuse to be vaccinated with the still insufficiently tested and sometimes life-threatening vaccines. In part, the less steadfast ones will allow themselves to be coerced into vaccination – simply by cajolery, which will be called persuasion, but which really corresponds to cajolery by influence – precisely by persuasion. Ptaah summarised this in the following, which I will try to put into words that correspond to that which he said. In doing so, I will try to put the corresponding statements into individual points, which I will number.

1. For their own wrong decisions and wrong actions with regard to the populations, the leaders of the countries will hold those earthlings responsible who steadfastly refuse to be vaccinated with half-value and insufficiently checked, that is to say, insufficiently tested vaccines.
2. The leaders of the countries will impose strict restrictions, that is to say, various constraints, limitations, various action-restricting possibilities as well as limited authorisations and diminishing rights and so forth, and practically punish those who refuse to have vaccines – that are insufficiently tested or untested and under some circumstances even life threatening – checked/tested on them or to be vaccinated with them at all.
3. The decisions made everywhere by all heads of nations themselves, which are wrong in every respect and which are imposed on and left to the populations, namely to live without very urgently needed respiratory protection masks and without keeping the proper and largely health-preserving safety distance of 2 metres from one human being to another, is irresponsible in every form and consequently to be disregarded.
4. The few steadfast ones will submit to the persuasions of the willing and fearful and to the profiteers, and to the persuasions of those who are in the thrall of the propaganda and persuasions of the vaccine manufacturers and their representatives and followers, and who are unable to muster any initiative for their own intellects and rationality.
5. The unvaccinated are now called on and assigned the blame, which fundamentally, however, falls to the national leaders, who in their ununderstanding of the facts and the corona situation did not order the right thing, rather the wrong thing for the population, wherethrough the next wave of corona virus infected ones will rise in high numbers and will again claim thousands of lives in total.
6. The unvaccinated will henceforth be falsely blamed and sanctioned by the leaders of the countries for the continued emergence and re-emergence of infections in the very high thousands and for the deaths in the hundreds and thousands to be mourned, for they will unlawfully hold the unvaccinated liable for the false decisions, decrees and edicts, and so forth, of the leaders of the countries and their sole and full culpability. This will be done in such a form that the unvaccinated will lose their rights as free citizens and become, as it were, ex officio recessive unfree and slaves of their own government and those who consent to it.

All around these are the explanations that Ptaah has given us, and which will come into effect on Earth soon, at least in countries where the citizens are insecure as a result of the wrong decisions and actions of the national leaders regarding the rampantly spreading corona disease and the half-value vaccines.

Billy That actually suffices with regard to that which we have spoken about.
