

NAZI Methods with Relation to Forced Vaccinations

Excerpt from the 786th contact from Tuesday, 23rd of November 2021

Billy ... but it must be said, because the populations should know what the fact really is – even if it is only in circles that are interested in it.

Quetzal However, the interest should be broader though. When I consider all the machinations that are being enacted as wrong decrees in various countries by the mighty ones of the states, then I see that they lack intellect and rationality. This is because they are incapable of correctly assessing the corona situation and therethrough ordering the people entrusted to their leadership to do the right thing. I must confess that this is far from my understanding.

Billy Yes, I can understand that. Ptaah no longer wanted to talk about it, but Bermunda told me that he had been talking about it to you and was angry that the governing powers of Earth are of such low intelligentum and simple-mindedness that they do not see and do not understand what would have to be done in the right form. But I wonder how these idiots are supposed to do that if they do not read what he actually said?

Quetzal But it is partly brought to them, as I know.

Billy However, that is to no avail, because this is proven by those in power in Austria who want all inhabitants of the country to be vaccinated with the unfit vaccines at least from February 2022. This is contrary to all warnings and incidents that there will be deaths and human beings with severe side effects as a result, some of which will be damaging to the health of many human beings until the end of their lives. I constantly receive telephone calls from victims or e-mails from persons complaining about how badly they have been feeling since they were vaccinated. Obviously, on the other hand, those who have been vaccinated and have no side effects have nothing but luck. But that's no wonder when I consider what Ptaah and Bermunda said, that sometimes only pure distilled water and saline solutions are used as a 'vaccine' and a lot of money is 'earned' with it through fraud. Consequently, there are many who think they are armed against infection by the corona virus, but in reality they are not, because they have been injected with useless distilled water or saline solution. Also the false vaccination certificates and the millions of vaccination cards that are supposed to be so perfect – according to Bermunda and Ptaah, and which are sold en masse – that their falsity cannot be detected, do not improve the situation.

Quetzal The mighty ones of the states and the people who agree to everything have learned nothing from the NAZI methods of the last world war, because they are doing exactly the same as the NAZIs did. They are using the same and very vicious and freedom-robbing coercive methods on the people as the NAZIs already did, namely that those human beings are punished who will not submit to the freedom-robbing coercive measures. It is strange, even the NAZI leader of the time, Adolf Hitler, came from Austria. Although he was born in Braunau on the Inn, on the 20th of April 1889, I know that he actually started his mischief in Vienna. In Germany, however, he then carried out his actions and behaviour that were badly out of the control of the good human nature, and led the terrestrial humanity into the catastrophe of the world war. He did this with the help of the people who cheered him on and who, believing in him, thoughtlessly went along with the whole disaster, which ultimately claimed millions of human lives. The non-self-thinking of the majority of the people, thus the low intelligentum, was unfortunately as widespread as it still is today. And with regard to the announced compulsory vaccination, the same occurs that had led to the world war at that time and had ignored that minority that had actually thought for itself and consequently was against what the majority, who – thoughtlessly and as followers with low intelligentum – believed from this Adolf Hitler as they also followed his henchmen.

Billy Yes, that was indeed the case, namely not only in Germany and Austria, but also with the NAZI followers in Switzerland, because we had people in our country who agreed with Hitler: I experienced that myself in our neighbourhood, as I also saw pictures with swastikas hanging on the living room walls when I was 6 years old.

Even in the government we had traitors who flirted with Hitler. This happened while other Swiss were shot by firing squads as traitors but even for allegedly stealing from comrades. At Katzensee I saw an execution myself, which was carried out by the army police, as I remember my godfather saying. And it really was a traitor to the country, as I was told, which Sfath later confirmed – Göbel or so was the man's name, which I cannot remember exactly. My memory has been shaky for years, consequently sometimes I remember one thing and at other times another thing. It is not just the years spent here on Earth; but I remember very well that I had just turned 6 and a good 3 months and was on holiday with my godfather, Aunt Marta and my cousin Walti in Regensdorf, where I then also met Elsi Moser; it was just spring 1943, I remember that very well. In rainy weather, my 'godfather' Alfred Flückiger and I – he was a prison warden in the Regensdorf penitentiary at the time – crept to the execution site at Katzensee and were able to watch everything. My godfather – whom I had without baptism, so he was probably my godfather, but not my sponsor, because I was never baptised – knew the time of the execution and wanted to watch it. He took me with him because he probably needed an excuse, if we were caught, that we would go for a walk in the early morning – at least that's what I think today. Everything was so badly secured by the military that the two of us were able to sneak up unseen and watch everything that happened in the little pit – namely how the man was shot.

Today, too, we have many people in Switzerland who, like the NAZI supporters back then, want to forcibly maltreat others, only this time it is to be compulsory vaccinations against the rampantly spreading corona disease. How the rulers in Austria want to practise this is beyond me, but there are also similar elements in Germany and Switzerland as well as in other countries, who are already toying around with such ideas and threaten with compulsory vaccinations. And it is probably life-threatening to say this, because back in February 1942 I saw Sophie Scholl and her like-minded people executed on the scaffold for saying what they thought and saw, because that is how it can happen in Switzerland too – just in a different form. At least the authorities are not squeamish about harassing me, which was proven again months ago when the police came by to see that the American who had been living here with us for 3 months was really gone because his visa had expired. Since then, he has been trying in vain at the Swiss Embassy in the USA to get a resident permit for Switzerland. With all kinds of excuses, he is again and again turned away and put off until a later time, because they supposedly have so much to do and therefore cannot cope with their work properly.

Just as everything went wrong in Germany and in the world at that time, precisely because of the World War, which Hitler and his ilk did not like, just as they did not like Sophie Scholl distributing leaflets against the NAZI regime and therefore getting caught up in the regime's mill, I think that the same thing could happen to me, only in a different form, because I am someone who says what he thinks. And that's why it is still the case today that various human beings who do not like the fact that I do not keep quiet and that I am in contact with you, are using NAZI methods against me. Furthermore, they are trying to get away with the same NAZI affectations with a compulsory people's vaccination with regard to the corona pandemic, consequently they tend to enforce everything with Gewalt (There is no English word that conveys the true meaning of the German word 'Gewalt'. 'Gewalt' is the brutal execution of elemental might and force, but it is far above all might and all force. 'Gewalt' exists in different and relative forms, one example being a 'gewalttätige Gesinnung' – expression from the character, personality, thoughts, feelings and emotions that shows the inclination to act with Gewalt. When human beings possess or carry out acts of Gewalt and it is not based in logic, then this usually involves violence, brutality, degradation and is terribly destructive.), as they did back then.

The so-called Second World War, which in reality was the Third World War, because the First World War had already been fought from 1756 to 1763, claimed many millions of lives. During the world war from 1939 to 1945, in addition to criminals – of which little or nothing has been made known to this day – the NAZIs and the obedient German military mainly killed, murdered and massacred Jewish believers in concentration camps; innocent women, children and men. This, along with millions of other innocent ones all over the world. The fact that many Jewish believers were also betrayed by private individuals and even killed themselves has been concealed until today and has never been known. I also saw and observed this with my own eyes several times with Sfath, as well as the shooting of human beings near open and deep ditches into which those who were shot then fell. It was really gruesome, also that many who fell into the pits were not dead and were then buried alive when the pits were covered up. At the time I was able to observe all this together with Sfath from his spaceship, and what I saw, I will never forget.

However, the NAZI methods are different now and are geared towards forced vaccination, although the vaccine is not fully developed and insufficiently tried, that is to say, not sufficiently tested and therefore also claims human lives as well as long-term or lifelong health-related damage and disadvantages. If this were different, namely that the vaccines had actually been created in long-term and years-long tests and trials as a largely safe medicine, then the willingness to vaccinate among all peoples would also look different, namely quite positive. Many, many of those who have reacted negatively since 2020 would not refuse to be vaccinated, because if they could be largely certain that vaccination would not put their lives at risk or that they would not have to live as cripples or otherwise ill for the rest of their lives, then they would let themselves be vaccinated. However, since the vaccines were simply thrown onto the market untested and unproven at the outbreak of the rampantly spreading disease and, moreover, turned out to be dangerous and partly lethal as well as harmful vaccine products, the thinking part of the peoples quickly revolted against vaccination. Thus, even the new wave that is currently prevailing and will become even worse will not change anything about the coming corona disaster, because as I said earlier, everything will increase, whereby in the north of Europe alone, precisely in Germany, the death toll will quickly rise far above 100,000. Also Switzerland and all the other countries of Europe will not be spared from this, nor from the new mutation that will occur in South Africa in the very near future and will spill over into Europe. However, many other countries around the world will henceforth have to mourn many victims of the rampantly spreading corona disease, because due to the incompetence of those in government, who are not doing the right thing, everything will get much worse than it has been so far. But there is no use in shouting warnings to the world, because those in government think they know everything better and do exactly the opposite of that which would have to be done. So, for their own failure – right across the board – they blame the unvaccinated for the new emergence and spread of the disease, and unquestioningly apply the old NAZI methods, believing that this will control the rampantly spreading disease, which will indeed subside over time, but will persist into the future. That is the case in addition to the complete failure of the governors, who have always done the wrong thing since time immemorial, and because the incompetent governors are not clever enough but only have a big mouth, many more earthlings will perish in the far future, namely not only due to further rampantly spreading diseases which will inevitably come as a result of the ever more rampant overpopulation, but also due to the wars, which are triggered by the incompetent and power-hungry governors. This is in addition to the existing uncertainty about what the foreigners will do, under whose skin the Pentagon in the USA wants to get again with a new 'task force', as Ptaah recently told me. The 'Bluebook' was only the beginning of the whole thing, in which Mr. Weaver, Waever or Wever – I do not remember his name exactly – was also involved, who I got to know together with Semjase, who then also told us that he had to say exactly the opposite of that which really corresponded to reality and truth. He was forbidden to speak and was not allowed to say what the real truth was.

Well, that's how it is, and now it has come to the point, as you say, that NAZI methods are to be applied as they were in the last world war, as they are – how could it be otherwise –, supported by all the Yes-roarers and all the non-thinkers, that is to say, the ones with low intelligentum, irresponsibly, thoughtlessly and obviously also in a benighted state of consciousness, who loudly howl their YES and AMEN to the government demands. And this is happening not only in Austria, but also in Germany, as well as in Switzerland, where a referendum on this issue has been launched on the 28th of November, and which is being supported by all those that are of low intelligentum and in bondage to the government and those elements that do not think for themselves. But the whole thing will gain ground in many other countries as well, which will not lead to a good end.

Quetzal Everything that is correct in this regard should be made known to the mighty ones of the countries and the majority of the peoples in bondage to them. Besides, the 24 attacks on you so far prove that you give certain people the creeps, which is why I ...

Billy ... Yes, that has been effective so far. But the low intelligentum of the governors and the majority of the peoples is mightier than that such a thing would happen, such as our conversations being fed to the rulers and their blind and non-thinking followers. This is ...

Quetzal That requires courage, which is, however, inherent in only a few.

Billy Unfortunately. – What we talk about only reaches those who read our internet pages.

Quetzal That is right, but in this case it is interested parties who could use their initiative in this form and forward it to the responsible ones of the mighty ones of governments.

Billy That is true, but whether they would then read the whole thing and really think, appeal to their own intellect and rationality and thus act better and more sensibly, I doubt. Ultimately, each human being must know for himself/herself what he/she is doing and what he/she wants to allow himself/herself, but those in power and their supporters of low intelligentum are unable to do this because they are incapable of clear thought. Unfortunately, there are only a few of the rulers and the peoples who are made in such a form that they are able to think clearly, because in truth they are of such a kind that they only believe that they think. And the fact that I open my mouth and say what should be, that does not suit them at all, which is why they try to get rid of me. Far be it for me to advise the earthlings regarding what they should do with regard to the government's decrees, because I advise neither the one nor the other, as you also handle it, but that which is right or would be right can nevertheless be said, namely even if there is no advice behind it. I really keep myself free of this, as you also do, because each human being alone must decide what he/she wants to do or not do, and what he/she finds right or not for himself/herself. But all this must be done in such a form that real and true thought is given to the matter at hand, and one does not simply believably do what others preach and spread as a right or wrong opinion, directive, decree or compulsion and so forth. There is simply nothing that replaces one's very own thinking, right decision-making and, from this, valuable action and behaviour – especially not a belief in something that speaks against all logic, which can only be recognised and followed by means of intellect and rationality. Therefore, I cannot give advice with regard to what the individual human being should or should not do personally for his/her own health and safety in the matter of the rampantly spreading corona disease. Regarding that I can only say what the intellect and rationality say about this, namely that due to self-responsibility all human beings must use their very own thinking, decisions and actions to protect themselves and all fellow human beings and do the right thing. In the case of the rampantly spreading corona disease, this means that a suitable and high-quality FFP2 respiratory protection mask must be worn and that sufficient distance must be maintained when dealing with other human beings. This is and remains the only thing, which, however, is not to be understood as advice, rather it applies as a self-imposed duty to protect one's own health and that of one's fellow human beings.

Quetzal It is simply amazing how precisely and accurately you always know to say and explain everything. In fact, I find that enviable.

Billy Excuse me, but this is nothing special, because I have learned from Sfath that when you have something to say or explain, you should do it in such a form that it is understood by the person listening; consequently he/she can also ask questions if something comes up that may not be properly understood or can be taken further. This simply requires patience, the right words and also the will and the ability to appreciate the fellow human beings as such and to treat them in such a form and to answer them as they deserve.

Quetzal I do understand that, but to really be able to do it is something completely different.

Billy That may be, but we are deviating from the topic, which is actually of a somewhat different nature.

Quetzal Yes, you are right. If I want to go back to what we were talking about, I understand the whole thing in the form that the mighty ones of the states, in their inability to do the right thing in the case of the rampantly spreading corona disease, have behaved completely erroneously and effectively decreed the wrong thing to their peoples. They are now shifting the blame for their misconduct and their misguided decrees onto the unvaccinated part of the peoples by holding them responsible for the further spread of the rampantly spreading disease, the resurgence of which was expected because the peoples followed the wrong orders issued by the national leaders who did not measure up to the rampantly spreading disease.

So now the unvaccinated are to be forced to be vaccinated by means of NAZI methods, to which the like-minded ones from the nations agree with pro and hurrah, as it was back then when the NAZIs and their followers, under the misguidance of Adolf Hitler, advocated the world war. This is now happening again in a different form, in that the mighty ones of the states are now shifting their responsibility onto their respective populations by striving for compulsory vaccination, namely with very questionable vaccines, which are half-baked, insufficiently tested and therefore poorly checked, and therefore still need years before they can be used with a clear conscience as a vaccine against the corona virus. But what is currently being done to terrestrial human beings with the administration of inadequate vaccines – if such are used at all and not simply distilled water or saline solution – is not only criminal, but also felonious. The fact that thereby a financial gain is behind the whole thing obviously does not occur to the mighty ones of the states, just as they do not think about the fact that all their doing and their wrong thinking is causing more damage to the trust of the people in their leaders than can be accepted in the long run. Because once the people lose their trust in their leaders, then it can go so very badly out of the control of the good human nature, as in the case when they are politically and leadership-wise misled, as happened through the NAZIs, whose methods are now to be enforced by the mighty ones of the states by forcing vaccination onto the population that is against the use of vaccines that will remain inadequate for a long time. The fact that those of low intelligentum among the like-minded ones of the peoples are irresponsibly going along with the mighty ones of the states and are even propagandising for it, makes everything even worse.

Billy Unfortunately this is the case and probably cannot be changed, because the NAZI method, as you call it, has existed and functioned since time immemorial. Even in very early times, the earthlings were repeatedly persuadingly – namely 'convincingly' – led away from thinking for themselves and were made believers. Thereby it always did not matter whether a war, civil war, world war, human massacre or other evil was triggered. The fact that in this form – precisely by means of conviction, which in truth is nothing other than persuasion, thus convincing – a great deal of unbelievable and immeasurable evil has befallen mankind on Earth since time immemorial and has remained so to this day, is something that neither those in power think about, nor those from the peoples who brown-nose those in power, namely without them first having to drop their trousers and uncover their foul-smelling backside.

However, while I am at it and pointing out the real machinations of those in power, I should not forget that there are also elements in the Swiss government who do not belong there. In that case I am thinking of those who are involved in wasting the tax payer's money of the Swiss population by giving away cohesion funds in the thousands of millions to foreign governments so that 'good weather', that is to say, 'cohesion' prevails between them and Switzerland. In this regard, Switzerland is to pay another cohesion fund in the thousands of millions to the EU dictatorship in order to make 'good weather' once again, because last year – or so – Switzerland laudingly no longer allowed itself to be trampled on the nose by the EU, and rather distanced itself from the EU demands. Now, however, Switzerland wants to negotiate with the EU again and create 'good weather for negotiations', namely by squandering taxpayers' money and giving the EU dictatorship 1 thousand-million as cohesion fund in order to be accepted again by the dictatorship as a 'negotiating partner'. But let's not go there, because these are things which the ordinary citizen has no influence over, because also here it is the case that the majority of those who have the say howl along and go along with the governments and their false and deceitful promises and decisions – without asking and thinking for themselves, but only accepting what is directed from above. And since this is indeed the case, the thinking human being cannot do anything against it because the majority of the non-thinkers always wins, because the principle of the majority applies. A human being who really thinks for himself/herself does not belong to them, thus he/she never has a chance to put forward something really thoughtful or to put forward a choice, which would then also be analysed down to the last iota by the electorate through their own thoughts and found to be correct and affirmed by means of intellect and rationality.

Quetzal That would not be the case with us, because the word of the individual Plejaren is important and in any case cannot be ignored.

Billy Yes, I know, because unlike with us on Earth, with you a human being and his/her opinion is worth as much as the whole people. Well, then something else...
