

About the Spread of the New Corona Variant

Excerpt from the 788th contact from Tuesday, 14th December 2021

Billy Let's leave that, because we have other things to talk about. Contra to the fact that you were upset – which has obviously subsided because you haven't said anything since then – I assume that with you everything is fine and subsided again, so that one can talk to you about the Corona topic again. Thus it happens, for example, that as a result of the rampantly spreading corona disease, governments in various countries are now 'wondering' regarding a compulsory vaccination that would be decreed by the government for all inhabitants of the country. This, however, contradicts the inviolability of the body; however, certain rulers do not care about it, because in their unintellect they do not know what to do – as usual. What is your opinion on this?

Ptaah If such is decreed, then such an action clearly contradicts all law and order, because preserving the inviolability of the human body must be an urgent constitutional duty in a country of freedom. If such a passage is not recorded in the constitution, then this is a sign that the people concerned are not integrated into freedom, but are being controlled heteronomously. And this happens either through the leaders of the countries or by misleading the majority of the people themselves, who are deceived by misleading propaganda with regard to the false interpretation of a ballot that serves the purpose of voting, and are thus subjected to a false interpretation of freedom. This automatically leads to a division of the people regarding a difference of opinion, that is to say, a for or against between those in favour and those against a cause. Therefore a disagreement results, which usually leads to quarrels and strife and finally to demonstrations and destruction, if not to vicious acts of Gewalt ("There is no English word that conveys the true meaning of the German word 'Gewalt'. 'Gewalt' is the brutal execution of elemental might and force, but it is far above all might and all force. 'Gewalt' exists in different and relative forms, one example being a 'gewalttätige Gesinnung' – expression from the character, personality, thoughts, feelings and emotions that shows the inclination to act with Gewalt. When human beings possess or carry out acts of Gewalt and it is not based in logic, then this usually involves violence, brutality, degradation and is terribly destructive." (Meier, BEA 2010, The Goblet of Truth, page XIII, footnote) and even acts of war. ...

... It is true that I lost my composure and I became agitated about it, especially because the leaders of the earthly countries are incapable of making decisions in the right form when it comes to making an effective decision in an emergency situation and acting accordingly in the right form, which would be necessary, as should be the case with the rampantly spreading corona disease. Actually, we should no longer talk about this issue, because it does not bring about anything with regard to how the leaders of the countries would have to handle the whole thing in order to really contain the rampantly spreading corona disease to such an extent that it would dissolve as a pandemic. The low intelligendum, that is to say, the non-thinking of these persons who are incapable of their office, which evidently exacerbates the effects of the corona pandemic, is so insane and confused that, as a result, the entirety of the effects of the rampantly spreading disease is getting worse instead of better.

The leaders of the countries of Earth, however, are explicitly incapable of ordering the right thing and having it carried out; consequently, bad disadvantages are brought forth throughout, which claim more and more human lives, for which the leaders of the countries, who are incapable of their office, with their wrong decisions and equally wrong demands, cause disaster in the peoples, which exceeds the measure of simple low intelligendum, that is to say, non-thinking. Therethrough they also divide the peoples into 2 camps, thus into the ones of low intelligendum and therefore non-thinking supporters of the misgoverning machinations of the incompetent leaders of low intelligendum of the countries and, on the other hand, into the part of those who make themselves heard as refusers due to their intellect and rationality, who independently think and correctly assess the facts that arise by means of intellect and rationality and logically defend themselves against the unright instructions and decrees of the incompetent leaders of the countries. However, those who belong to right-wing and left-wing terrorism as well as neo-Nazism and conspiracy theorists, are to be excluded from this.

How the incompetent leaders of the countries, and the people in bondage to them, act in their non-thinking – who believe they have to be treated by the still questionable vaccines in the false hope that they will become immune to the rampantly spreading disease – is demonstrated by their anxiety with regard to the rampantly spreading disease, which is more than ten times higher than that of the unvaccinated and thinking ones.

In fact, consistently the wrong thing is explicitly ordered, decreed and imposed upon the peoples by the leaders of all earthly nations throughout, wherethrough the rampantly spreading disease can continue to run rampant and claim victims. And it will soon be the case – when the new mutation of the rampantly spreading corona disease that developed months ago in Nigeria and imminently begins to spread worldwide – that incompetent leaders of countries will not blame themselves for their failure, but those who make an effort to announce the numbers of victims and deaths of the rampantly spreading disease. These will be the ones who in the future will be accused by the incompetent state leaders of having promoted the spread of the rampantly spreading disease by providing false information and so forth. This will happen in the near future, and it will also result from this that, based on the creation of the G-regulation (In some German speaking countries, there are G-rules: '2G' means that a person has to be 'Geimpft' (= vaccinated) or 'Genesen' (= recovered from Covid-19), '3G' means a person has to be 'Geimpft', 'Genesen' or 'Getestet' (= negative Covid-19 test) for admittance into restaurants or other venues.) and the vaccination cards that will become obligatory, a criminal production and sale of false vaccination cards will arise, which will occur more and more, which will undoubtedly lead back to the fault of the state leaders, because they, in their incompetence, order and prescribe the wrong thing to their populations. This is the case, while other and very malignant consequences are increasingly appearing, also through the fault of the leaders, because through their incapacity and their ineffectual orders and their useless prescriptions in the matter of the rampantly spreading corona disease, controversies are arising in families and in circles of friendship and acquaintance, especially with regard to vaccination and non-vaccination, which are creating discord. While conflicts arise in families, their members, as well as in relatives, in circles of friends and acquaintances, as a result of different views regarding those who want to be vaccinated and those who do not want to be vaccinated, this henceforth leads to long-term or permanent discord, which not infrequently gets badly out of the control of the good human nature into enmities and can never be resolved again. However, the leaders of the countries responsible for this and the fellow howlers of the supporters do not give this any thought whatsoever, because their low intelligentum is so deeply based in non-thinking, in self-conceit and in their indifference towards their fellow human beings that it does not even occur to them that they are doing wrong.

The consequence of the new mutation from Africa is that – as a result of the inability of state leaders to order and prescribe the right measures – it is spreading in such a form that the whole thing is getting out of control and affecting practically the whole of humanity on Earth. This is happening in addition to the fact that – at present and also in the future – millions of forged vaccination cards and vaccination certificates are being put into circulation worldwide and are also being bought by human beings who are unwilling to be vaccinated – also in Switzerland. Some of them will be recognised as forgeries, but most of them will be forged so perfectly that they cannot be distinguished from genuine certificates and thus cannot be recognised as forgeries. As a result, the rampantly spreading corona disease is spread by many of those persons who carry false vaccination cards but are carriers of the corona virus. All this is due to the inability and the fault of the leaders of the countries, who are not in a position to deal with the emergency situation in the form of the rampantly spreading corona disease correctly in such a form that it can at least be brought under control to a large extent, so that it can no longer spread uncontrollably. Therefore this will also be the case with the new mutation from Africa, which is raging and spreading rapidly because the leaders of all nations are incapable of stopping this spread, namely by ordering a worldwide travel ban of all kinds, which would be necessary in order to contain the spread. However, due to their inability, the rampantly spreading corona disease, in the form of the new mutation – which will not be the last – will spread very quickly on Earth and claim many victims.

Billy Unfortunately, this is the case in every country with the governors, because they only have a big mouth and consider themselves called upon to spread their verbal nonsense on television, radio and in the newspapers. Besides, they want to keep the economy running – for which they can presumably collect a lot of money – which is why they do not block everything and thus allow the spread of the rampantly spreading disease to continue. Indeed I know from my time with Sfath that the African mutation is a milder form, but that it spreads quickly and claims many victims – precisely through the fault of the rulers who, in their incompetence, do not prescribe the right thing for the people and so simply let everything slide and play with the lives of human beings. This also includes the factor that those in power cooperate with virologists and other 'experts' or simply follow their 'advice', which is not directed at – but which would be necessary – ensuring that the populations are properly educated about the rampantly spreading disease and its effects and so forth. However, this is precisely that which is being neglected, because it is only about being the big main speaker and exercising might, whereby lies are so brazenly told and the real truth is swept under the table, so that the people are effectively left in the dark as far as information is concerned. This is also the case in Switzerland, as it is no different in this respect than in all other countries, where the responsible rulers lead with their big mouths and make everything increasingly worse due to their wrong orders and decrees. ...

Ptaah ... In the future, only few forgeries will be detected and their manufacturers be found in various countries because they distribute such faulty ID cards that they are recognised as forgeries. These will well be hundreds of thousands, but they really only concern a small part of the falsified documents that are circulating and belie the state statistics of the allegedly vaccinated persons. This alone, however, is the fault of the incompetent leaders of the countries, who will now all the more issue new orders and decrees to the people in a confused form and of low intelligentum and thus cause more unrest. But who am I telling this to, because you are better oriented about it than I am, because in the 1940s, together with my father Sfath, you saw what is going to happen. From my point of view, this is something that is not easy to cope with, because nothing can be done about all the irrationality.

Billy Yes, nothing can be done about it, not even against the conspiracy theorists who still spread all kinds of impossible nonsense and claim, for example, that the rampantly spreading corona disease does not exist, or that the governments are trying to reduce the population by poisoning it in order to reduce the overpopulation; or by others conspiratorially claiming that a special group of rich people, namely millionaires and billionaires, are trying to do the same thing by means of the rampantly spreading corona disease, which was created only for this purpose. Various other conspiracy theories are also making earthlings insecure and mad, thus in this way misleading and driving to rebellion those of the populations who believe the nonsense. But there are also the right-wing extremists and the effective neo-Nazis who tell lies to the populations and make them believe in right-wing extremism or Nazism; thus many human beings fall prey to these foreign influences, believe them and thus kick up a fuss. However, there is never an excuse to claim that the other person had done and said everything to seduce one to a different view or opinion, because basically it is every human beings' own fault if they allow themselves to be seduced to a different opinion by means of outside influence, that is to say, by being convinced and persuaded. If a human being thus allows themselves to be persuaded and therethrough adopt, that is to say, believe in another view or opinion, they unrestrainedly allow their new attitudes to break through, which in truth, however, have already been slumbering deep in their characters and henceforth come to the fore through the new opinion at every suitable and unsuitable opportunity. This then leads to Gewalt, death threats, murder, manslaughter and destruction, which also affects those who, from a position of pure logic, intellect and rationality, do not get vaccinated, for example, because the vaccines are still immature and under some circumstances are life-threatening for one human being or another.

Well, the corona pandemic is an incontrovertible fact and reality. It does effectively exist and has so far claimed millions of infections and deaths – and it will still go on within this framework, and this has to do with the real reality, but not with conspiracy theories, which only human beings can invent and fabricate who are irresponsible creatures and want to make themselves big with their mendacious theories. No human being should ever get involved with these lunatics and their false theories; thus they should defend themselves against the foreign influences emanating from them and understand what corresponds to reality and truth. And this alone is what the human beings should and must think about, but not about conspiracy theories, right-wing extremism, left-wing extremism – which actually also exists – and neo-Nazism and so forth. It is therefore also necessary in the time of crisis of the corona pandemic that the human beings are partial to logic, intellect and rationality and do not simply fall for foreign influences of crackpots and liars, but refuse to do so and think for themselves correctly, logically, intelligently and rationally, in order to think and act correctly, rationally and responsibly in their very own decisions and at their own discretion. This is the order of the day and of rationality, which ultimately determines life and death for many human beings during the rampantly spreading corona disease. Demonstrations, destruction, Gewalt and death threats by anti-vaccine sections of the population will be the result of the mad and confused as well as halfway useless orders and decrees of those in government once they rebel against them in an irrational manner – whereby I hope and assume that FIGU members and FIGU friends will refrain from such machinations. Of course, one should not simply make a fist in one's pocket against the inadequacy of the rulers, because a resistance against the wrong official and governmental nonsense is absolutely necessary, but outside of any Gewalt, threat and destruction. It is therefore very well possible to use the social democratic motto by speaking directly to the wrongly ordering, decreeing and acting rulers, or by writing to them to give them a piece of one's mind and let them know what the right thing is. This, however, requires that the human being follows the logic of truth, thinks for himself/herself, decides and acts correctly and, moreover, carries out the whole thing with intellect and rationality in such a form that what is actually explained with the whole thing is also understood.
